

GLENASHLEY
PREPARATORY SCHOOL

CODE OF CONDUCT

Attendance at School:

Attending school's lessons, classes and assigned activities is obligatory by law.

Absence from School or Sport / P.E:

From School:

The parent must inform the school, in writing/email of the reason for any absence of the child from school. Where the absence is more than two (2) school days a doctor's medical certificate must accompany the child on his/her return to school. Where a child needs special permission to be exempted from school, e.g. a family bereavement, the parent must timeously inform the school (in writing). Please note that a pupil who takes leave from school (e.g. illness) before 10:00am will be marked as absent.

From Sport / P.E. Lesson:

If a child is to be excused from sport or physical education lessons a letter clearly explaining the reasons must be submitted either before or on the day concerned. Permanent exemption from P.E. / sport and/ or the absence of two or more lessons from sport and/or physical education needs to be supported by a doctor's certificate. A percentage will be deducted from the pupils Life Orientation mark if they are exempt from PE in accordance with the National Educational Department

If a pupil is absent from school, it is his/her responsibility to catch up on all missed work.

Academics

- All books are to be neatly covered and labelled with a book cover. Thereafter, the book must be further covered with a transparent plastic cover (no coloured plastic permitted).
- All work must be done neatly. Untidy work is not allowed.
- All books must be kept up to date.
- Notes handed out by the teacher must be stuck neatly into the required books as detailed by the teacher.
- Books that are needed for lessons must not be left at home or in registration class. Under no circumstance shall a class be interrupted by a pupil wanting to fetch an item left behind in his/her registration class.
- Media Centre books must be returned on or before the prescribed date.
- Parents will have to replace or pay for misplaced or lost books.
- The Media Centre must be left neat and tidy.
- No copying of any work is allowed.
- Cheating in tests is strictly forbidden. This includes no communication between pupils.
- Books must not be lost or mislaid and lessons must not be missed.
- The teacher's instructions must be obeyed at all times.
- Parents are requested to provide learners with all relevant stationery.
- Pupils are not allowed to draw pictures/graffiti in/on their books.

Homework: General

- Homework is compulsory and needs to be done in full as prescribed by the teacher. Homework notebooks or email are mediums of communication between parent and teacher. Only one homework book per child is permitted at any given time. When the H/W book is finished it will be collected and kept by the teacher.
- Parents are required to sign the homework notebook each night to certify that they have seen the instructions regarding the homework and any circulars / notices that have been handed out.
- Any circulars or notices that are handed out with a reply slip need to be returned on the given day.

- It is the parent's responsibility to check all work and ensure assignment tasks are completed. Parents are not to do the work for the child.
- Teachers are to ensure that the homework is copied down on a daily basis.
- Pupils will be expected to do assignment tasks and test / exam studies in their own time and parents must carefully supervise these tasks.
- Please note: a penalty of 10% for the first day, and 20% for the second day, if an assignment is handed in late. Thereafter late assignments will not be accepted for marking. After three days 0 marks will be given. The pupil, however, must still complete the task which will be marked nonetheless. A letter will be sent home in this respect.
- When a pupil returns after being absent for a test, he/she must stay in and do it at the convenience of the teacher. This will be done only if the reason for the absence is acceptable. Disciplinary action will be taken against any pupils who deliberately miss tests.
- Should a pupil miss an exam, he/she will receive "0" marks unless a Doctor's Certificate is provided. Pupils who provide a valid doctor's certificate will be given the opportunity to write the examination on their return. Parents are requested to phone the school on the day of the absence and to deliver a doctor's certificate as soon as possible.
- Plagiarism is a form of copying or cheating and will be treated as a serious offence. Plagiarism includes copying material from books, the internet and other sources, and presenting it as one's own work. Pupils who plagiarise will receive warning letters and may face a Disciplinary Tribunal. The pupil will also get 0 marks for that assignment and will have to redo the work at the convenience of the teacher.
- Tasks handed in by a pupil must be his/her own work. This is the only way an educator can assess whether or not a pupil has achieved certain outcomes and understands the work. This is also the only way an educator can assist a pupil in remedying whatever difficulties he/she may have. A pupil who hands in work which was assisted by others or done by anyone other than himself/herself is misleading the educator, and themselves. Such work will be regarded as cheating. The pupil will receive 0 marks and will have to redo the work, a warning letter may be sent.

PARENT AND TEACHER INTERACTION GUIDELINES

Parent/Teacher appointments:

- Must be requested and confirmed in writing in the homework book or via email.
- Secretaries are not obliged to make appointments on teacher’s or parents’ behalf.
- Secretaries may take a parent’s name and number and the respective teacher or teachers should make the appointment.
- Under no circumstance will a parent be allowed to see a teacher without an appointment and interrupt contact time.

The appointment procedure:

- Time of appointment to be adhered to. A grace period of 10 min either side of the appointment time will be given to both parties, after which the appointment venue may be left and an alternative time and date would have to be arranged.
- Verbal abuse will not be tolerated from either party and the appointment can be terminated if the verbal abuse persists.

Communication procedure:

- Letter.
- Appointment.
- Telephone calls made by parents to teachers during school hours can only be taken and or returned during non-teaching time.
- Teachers’ telephone numbers are not given out.
- Teachers are not obliged to discuss pupil’s progress or school behaviour outside of an appointment venue.
- Teachers are not obliged and will be unable to see parents during school hours without an appointment. These hours are strictly reserved for the express purpose of teaching the learners.
- “Spur of the moment” or “pop in classroom visits” are not encouraged nor will the teacher be obliged to conduct any communication with the parent under these circumstances. Parents are asked to refrain from entering the school classroom corridors for any reason whatsoever. This obviously excludes prearranged teacher / parent meetings / interviews.

- Parents attending an appointment with a teacher must first report their arrival at the Administration Office Secretaries who will then notify the teacher concerned. The teacher must report to the foyer area and direct the parent/parents to the meeting place.
- Parents wishing to complain about a staff member/s must first make every effort to resolve the problem with the respective teacher concerned.
- Parents must request, in writing, an appointment with the respective teacher in an attempt to resolve the issue. Should this route prove unsuccessful, the parent may then request an appointment with the Grade Head. If the situation is still not resolved the DH in charge of discipline will then be asked to head up an investigation into the incident or allegations. He will then present his findings to the Principal and will report back to the concerned parties.
- Under no circumstance will a parent be awarded a meeting with the principal until the correct procedure has been adhered to.

Glenashley Preparatory Sport Value System:

Representing Glenashley Preparatory:

- Pupils are expected to participate in at least one extra mural activity per term and must participate in inter-house competition e.g. swimming. Pupils who are selected for teams, are expected to be available to represent the school when required to do so.
- Pupils must see team selection as an honour – an opportunity to represent one’s school. It is important for pupils to remember that it is not the winning that counts, but how the game is played. Please Note – school sport commitments supersede those related to outside sport clubs. All pupils/parents are asked to ensure that this aspect of school commitment is honoured at all times.

Sports Kit:

- Uniformity of dress is essential. Teams must be impeccably turned out at all times and no player is to take the field i.e. at practice or in a match, unless 100% correctly dressed.
- Pupils must arrive and depart in full sports uniform.
- Shirts must be tucked in – socks pulled up, (garters to be used) and boots/shoes clean.

Team Swimmers:

- If selected to the elite squad, pupils are to purchase a full GPS tracksuit, GPS swimming towel and a RED silicone cap. Black racing costumes may be worn subject to the approval of the school sports management. Plain black or white slip slops (compulsory) must be worn with the tracksuit when attending galas.

Support Your Team / School:

- The team is expected to sit down and watch when the nature of the game determines such action. Team members should ideally sit apart from parents and may not play/practise before, during or after matches. The same rule applies to spectators in school uniform.
- Coaches will be asked to monitor players’ behaviour as misbehaviour could jeopardise a pupil’s selection for further matches. When a pupil commits himself/herself to a team, he/she commits himself/herself fully to all practices and fixtures for that term. Obviously, there may be exceptions when a pupil will be unavailable but it is hoped that parents will assist the school by ensuring that the pupil honours all practices and match fixtures. Coaches are to be advised (in writing) at least two days in advance if a pupil is unavailable for a match.

From the Side Lines:

- Pupils must applaud good play whether from home teams or the opposition. Parents and players should never make any unsporting remarks, whether it be a mistake committed by a team member/player or the referee/umpire.
- Whilst parental support is always welcome, over vociferous support must be curbed in the interest of the pupil, team and school.
- NEVER QUERY the referee/umpire's decisions.
- Praise/encouragement has a more positive effect on team members. Parents are asked to refrain (at all times) from questioning both school and representative team selections.

Courtesies:

- Failure to arrive for a match after selection is bad manners in the extreme. Apart from letting the team down, it reflects poorly on the school. Should a pupil not be able to play in the match, the parent concerned must contact the coach or the Head of Sport to inform them of the pupils' unavailability. Obviously the earlier a coach is advised, the easier a replacement may be found.
- Failure to arrive for a match or failure to notify the coach as above will result in disciplinary action against the pupil.
- The pupil will be deemed absent if he/she is not seen by the coach.
- Players are to report timeously for matches. The match slips clearly indicate the time that pupils must report. To avoid discrepancies, favouritism being cited and debate over the issue, being late is exactly what it means, be it one or ten minutes.
- If a pupil is late, their place in the team will be under review as we require full commitment.
- Obviously, there would be the occasional exception e.g. the car breaking down whilst en-route to the meeting place but it is expected that total honesty regarding the late arrival would prevail.
- In many instances, the pupil cites the parents as being responsible for his/her late arrival. Parents are asked to ensure that their actions do not negatively affect the timeous arrival of their child at the designated time. Whilst this may be true, the school does not have the time or resources to investigate the issue, therefore the pupil concerned will have to be held responsible for his/her late arrival.
- The importance of this issue cannot be stressed highly enough and parents are asked to support the school on this issue as coaches face criticism from other irate parents who are assisting with lifts and are themselves seriously inconvenienced by the arrival of latecomers and thus departures to the respective venues.
- In addition, the late arrival of a pupil often results in the late arrival of a team at the opposing venue with the resultant embarrassment occurring. This embarrassment also applies when team members arrive late for home fixtures, negatively affecting the timeous preparation of the team.
- Pupils will only be excused from practice through a letter, on or before the day in question, explaining their absence. Failure to attend practice (except if the pupil is absent from school) could jeopardise a pupils' selection. If he/she forgets his/her kit, he/she must still attend practice and notify the coach of the oversight. Parents are asked not to encroach on practice areas.
- Coaches should be allowed to coach their teams without the physical presence of the parents in the immediate vicinity. With regard to the cricket nets, it would be appreciated if parents would position themselves away from the net perimeter, thereby alleviating any feasibility of interference. Whilst parents' intentions are no doubt honourable, the coaches do find the presence of parents at practices rather restrictive and the interaction between coach and player is thus not maximised.
- With regards to matches, parents are to ensure that all aspects of the team's/opponent's performance are left to the discretion of the respective coaches. Parental intervention of any scale is not permitted. Parental concerns need to be channelled to the school management. Excessive jubilation upon a goal/wicket taken/victory is unacceptable.

No comments whatsoever are to be directed at any stage to the opposition i.e. by both players and parents.

- Players must always thank the opposition/referee/umpire at the conclusion of the match.
- Team members should not request permission to leave a match early and should under no circumstances, leave without greeting/notifying and thanking the teacher/coach in charge.
- Players must remain behind after all matches to assist with the clearing up process. Players may only depart once the process has been completed and the coach has dismissed them.
